Eligibility and your obligations

2.5 Our provision of the AWS Billing Service is subject to you, for the Term:

- (a) having a separate AWS Services Agreement with AWS to receive and access AWS Services directly from AWS;
- (b) if you make any AWS Marketplace Purchases, having a separate Vendor Agreement with the relevant Vendor;
- (c) having a connection into your private network via a service from us. The terms for these services are not part of this Service Schedule. If you are not already receiving these services from us, you can acquire them from us under a separate agreement and order for these services. Unless we agree otherwise, you must acquire only from us all services you use for carrying data to or from your AWS Services; and
- (d) complying with all applicable laws relating to the AWS Services.

2.6 Only applicable for Australia customers: Acquiring AWS Billing Services is not generally available to Public Sector Customers. By ordering the AWS Billing Service, you acknowledge and confirm:

- (a) you are not a Public Sector Customer; or
- (b) if you are a Public Sector Customer you are located in Australia and before entering this Agreement, you have:
  - (i) entered an AWS Services Agreement directly with AWS; and
  - (ii) received confirmation in writing from us that you comply with clause 2.6(b)(i).

You permit us to disclose any of your information to AWS for the purpose of clause 2.6.

2.7 We may terminate, cancel or suspend your AWS Billing Service by notice to you at any time if it is found you are in breach of clauses 2.5 or 2.6.

Separate agreement with AWS for AWS Services and Vendors for AWS Marketplace Purchases

2.8 You acknowledge and agree that:

- (a) we do not provide you with any AWS Services or any AWS Marketplace Purchases.

You receive your:

- (i) AWS Services from AWS under the terms of your AWS Services Agreement which governs your access to and use of those services (except for any terms relating to billing, payment and taxes which are replaced with the terms in clause 3 of this Service Schedule); and

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

- (ii) AWS Marketplace Purchases from the Vendor under the terms of your Vendor Agreement which governs your access to and use of those services (except for any terms relating to billing, payment and taxes which are replaced with the terms in clause 3 of this Service Schedule);
  - (b) you will not prevent AWS exercising any of its rights or performing any of its obligations under your AWS Services Agreement, nor any Vendor from exercising any of its rights or performing any of its obligations under your Vendor Agreement;
  - (c) contractual rights, commitments or obligations between you and AWS under your AWS Services Agreement in respect of the AWS Services, do not apply between us and you;
  - (d) contractual rights, commitments or obligations between you and the Vendor under your Vendor Agreement in respect of AWS Marketplace Purchases, do not apply between us and you; and
  - (e) you will not pursue us, and we have no liability to you (including your end users) or any third party, for any Losses arising out of, or in connection with, your AWS Services and AWS Services Agreement, or AWS Marketplace Purchases and Vendor Agreement, as applicable.
- 2.9 Conversely, you acknowledge and agree that AWS provides the AWS Services only, and Vendors provide the AWS Marketplace Purchases only, and they do not provide any of our services (including the AWS Billing Service), and you will not bring any dispute, complaint or claim against AWS or the Vendor in relation to our services (including the AWS Billing Service).

Accessing your AWS account and giving you root access to our master account

- 2.10 If you do not already have an AWS account, you consent to us, on your behalf:
- (a) creating an AWS account in the legal name of the entity you have nominated in your Service Order Form; and
  - (b) entering and accepting an AWS Customer Agreement (located on the AWS site at <http://aws.amazon.com/agreement>) between you and AWS, the terms of which you acknowledge you have read and accept.
- 2.11 We will maintain the management account of your AWS organisation under our name to enable us to administer the AWS Billing Services. If we allow you root access to that management account, you must comply (and ensure that your Personnel comply) with the AWS Customer Agreement in connection with your use of our management account.

If you are granted root access to the management account, you agree not to:

- (a) Override, modify or delete any of the rights that enable us to undertake billing activities in the management account; or
- (b) take any action(s) that affects the integrity of the data in the management accounts.

Discount

- 2.12 During the Discount Term, the Cross-Service Discount will be applied to the net fees for use of Eligible Services:

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

- (a) except where any component of an Eligible Service is entitled to discounting under another agreement (in which case the discounting in that agreement will apply to the fees for that component); and
  - (b) provided you are complying with the terms of this Service Schedule.
- 2.13 The discounting under this Service Schedule may not be combined with any other discounts (including with any discounts on the AWS website).

Commitment

- 2.14 For private pricing customers, if the Commitment-Eligible Fees incurred during a Contract Year are less than the Spend Commitment for that Contract Year, then you will pay us an amount equal to the Spend Commitment less the Commitment-Eligible Fees incurred during the applicable Contract Year (Spend Commitment Shortfall Payment).

Enrolment in support

- 2.15 For private pricing customers, unless the Eligible Accounts are already enrolled, starting on the first day of the Discount Term, your Eligible Accounts will be automatically enrolled in AWS Enterprise Support (AWS Resold Support). You must maintain any such enrolment throughout the service term.

3 PAYMENT AND INVOICING

- 3.1 We will invoice you and you must pay us the charges and fees for the AWS Services and AWS Marketplace Purchases which have been incurred on your AWS account.
- 3.2 You agree that:
- (a) AWS Services and AWS Marketplace Purchases are sold globally and are quoted in a single currency – the US dollar (unless notified by us to you);
  - (b) the pricing for your AWS Services and AWS Marketplace Purchases made available in pricing information we provide you, your AWS account or otherwise is displayed in US dollars and does not include GST (unless specified otherwise);
  - (c) your Telstra bill will show prices in Australian dollars and payment is required in Australian dollars, directly to us; and
  - (d) AWS do not add any pre-GST charges to your purchases of AWS Services, and GST will be added on your Telstra bill after the AWS Service and AWS Marketplace Purchases charges are converted into Australian dollars.
- 3.3 The charges for the AWS Services and AWS Marketplace Purchases will ordinarily be billed monthly in arrears, with the exception of the Reserved Instance AWS Service, which will be billed in whole or in part monthly in advance. You must pay all charges within 30 days of the date of invoice.
- 3.4 The charges on your invoice from us are the fees and charges for the AWS Services you have accessed and used, and the AWS Marketplace Purchases you have made under the terms of your AWS Services Agreement. If you genuinely dispute the charges for any of the AWS Services or AWS Marketplace Purchases appearing on an invoice issued by us, you must:
- (a) pay us the charges for all undisputed amounts by the due date; and

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

- (b) within 30 days of the date of the invoice notify us in the writing of the disputed amount and:
  - (i) if the disputed amount is due to our requirement to invoice you for your AWS Services or provide the AWS Billing Service, you need not pay the disputed amount until the dispute is resolved; or
  - (ii) if we notify you that the disputed amount relates to provision of your AWS Services by AWS or your AWS Marketplace Purchases or AWS Services Agreement, within 30 days of our notice to you under this clause 3.4(b)(ii), you must make, and attempt to resolve, a claim for the disputed amount directly with AWS under the terms of your AWS Services Agreement (or the Vendor Agreement, as applicable).
- 3.5 If after 30 days of us notifying you under clause 3.4(b)(ii) the disputed amount remains due and payable on your AWS account, you must pay us for the disputed amount (unless AWS directs or we agree otherwise due to a resolution you have reached with AWS or the Vendor in relation to the disputed amount).
- 3.6 During the service term, the remaining balance of any Spend Commitment Shortfall Payment paid to us during the service term (the Available Balance) will be applied to fees and any taxes for use of Eligible Services. The Available Balance:
  - (a) is non-refundable;
  - (b) will not reduce your Spend Commitment Shortfall Payment obligations for a Contract Year; and
  - (c) is not a deposit for or credit toward the purchase of any services after the Discount Term.

After the Discount Term, we will invoice you for an amount equal to any remaining Available Balance, and such Available Balance will be applied against such invoiced amount.

4 NOT USED

5 VARIATIONS

- 5.1 You acknowledge and agree that:
  - (a) subject to clause 5.1(b) and despite any other provision of this Service Schedule, we may amend the terms of this Service Schedule from time-to-time by giving you prior notice;
  - (b) if we reasonably consider a change to the terms of this Agreement will cause detriment to you, we can make the change by first giving you at least 30 days' notice of the change. You can cancel your AWS Billing Services under this Agreement within the period of notice we gave you if do not accept the changes, in which case:
    - (i) you will only incur usage fees and charges for the AWS Billing Services up to the cancellation date; and

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

- (ii) if you have been billed in whole or part in advance for a Reserved Instance AWS Service, the services will be transitioned to AWS under your AWS Services Agreement.

6 LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

- 6.1 You indemnify us from and against any Losses relating to any claims made against us by AWS or any Vendor, or any of their respective affiliates, licensors, employees, officers, directors and representatives, arising from or in connection with any breach by you (or your Personnel) of:

  - (d) clause 2.10 (Accessing your AWS account and giving you root access to the master account) in connection with use of our master account (if relevant); and
  - (e) clause 8.1 (Privacy and Confidentiality).
- 6.2 Except for indemnification under clause 6.1 and your payment obligations under this Service Schedule, neither party (nor any of their affiliates or licensors) will be liable to the other party under any claims, arising out of, or in connection with:
- (a) loss of profits, revenues, customers, opportunities or goodwill;
  - (b) cost of procurement of substitute goods or substitute services;
  - (c) any indirect, incidental, special, consequential or exemplary damages; or
  - (d) investments, expenditures or commitments by you.
- 6.3 We exclude all liability to you (including to your end users and Personnel) for any claims made by you or a third party for Losses arising out of, or in connection with, your:
- (a) AWS Services or the terms of your AWS Services Agreement; and
  - (b) AWS Marketplace Purchases or the terms of your Vendor Agreement(s),
- except in relation to any claim by AWS or a Vendor against you alleging non-payment for your AWS Services or AWS Marketplace Purchases, respectively, to the extent such claim is caused by our failure to pay AWS for your AWS Services or the Vendor for your AWS Marketplace Services on your behalf.
- 6.4 Except for indemnification arising under clause 6.1 and your payment obligations under this Service Schedule, the aggregate liability of either party and any of their respective affiliates or licensors will not exceed the amount paid by you to us under the AWS Billing Service during the 12 months before the liability arose.
- 6.5 The exclusions and limitations in this clause 6 and other parts of this Service Schedule apply to the greatest extent permitted by law and apply to all liability in connection with this Service Schedule (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), statute or otherwise). For any liability which cannot lawfully be excluded, but can be limited, our liability to you is limited to our choice of re-supplying or paying the cost of re-supplying the AWS Billing Service.

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

- 6.6 Notwithstanding anything else in this Service Schedule:
- (a) nothing in this Service Schedule excludes or limits, or has the effect of excluding or limiting, the operation of the Australian Consumer Law or any right you may have under the Australian Consumer Law which cannot be excluded or limited (only for Australian customers); and
  - (b) a party's liability for any loss or damage will be reduced to the extent the relevant loss or damage is caused or contributed to by the other party or its Personnel.

7 TERM AND TERMINATION

- 7.1 Your AWS Billing Service begins on the date we accept your Service Order Form (even if executed prior to this Service Schedule being issued) and continues until it is terminated (Term).
- 7.2 Notwithstanding any termination for convenience rights in the Agreement, neither you nor we may terminate the Agreement for convenience for so long as this Service Schedule is in effect.
- 7.2A If, during the service term, you terminate the Agreement for cause (as provided in the Agreement), then any future Annual Commitment Payment obligations under this Service Schedule arising after the effective date of such termination will not apply.
- 7.3 We may terminate, suspend or cancel the AWS Billing Service immediately if:
- (a) AWS terminates or cancels our right to provide the AWS Billing Service in which case, if possible, we will give you reasonable notice;
  - (b) all the AWS Services on your AWS account have been cancelled or terminated for 45 days;
  - (c) your use of the AWS Services expose or threaten to expose us or AWS to any material liability;
  - (d) (only for Australian customers) if the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission (ACCC) issues or we reasonably anticipate that the ACCC may issue a competition notice in relation to a AWS End Customer Service; and
  - (e) if you are or become a carrier or carriage service provider (as defined in the Act) (only for Australian customers).
- 7.4 Where provision of the AWS Billing Service has been suspended or cancelled by us, we may require you to pay a re-instatement charge if the rebilling service is re-instated.
- 7.5 Any termination, cancellation or suspension of the AWS Billing Service does not terminate, cancel or suspend your AWS Services supplied by AWS, or AWS Marketplace Purchases supplied by a Vendor. If you wish to terminate your AWS Services or AWS Marketplace Purchases, you must do so under the terms of your AWS Services Agreement with AWS and/or Vendor Agreement with the Vendor (as applicable). Nothing in this Service Schedule limits or prevents any termination rights of you or AWS under your AWS Services Agreement, or you or the relevant Vendor under a Vendor Agreement.
- 7.6 If you or AWS terminate any of your AWS Services under your AWS Services Agreement, or a Vendor terminates any of your AWS Marketplace Purchases under your Vendor Agreement, you must notify us in writing.

AMAZON WEB SERVICES (AWS) SERVICES

7.7 If your AWS Billing Service expires or terminates for any reason clauses 2.8 (Separate Agreement with AWS for AWS Services and Vendors for AWS Marketplace Purchases), 6 (Liability and indemnity), 8 (Privacy and confidentiality) and 9 (Dispute Resolution) continue in full force and effect.

- (b) information about you and each of them that you and each of them disclosed directly to AWS or any Vendor is separate to any information about you and each of them that you disclose to us under or in connection with this Agreement and we are not liable to you or any of them in respect of any such disclosure.

- (b) we may receive a commission or benefit in connection with any private pricing offer we agree with you;
